The Tennis Pros at the George C. Meyer Tennis Center, Jean Coberly and Buck Bobo, are truly an asset to the City of Gulf Shores. Their experience and professionalism speaks for itself.

Jean Coberly has been teaching tennis for over 40 years throughout the United States, and has been instructing tennis for the City of Gulf Shores for over 23 of those 40 years. She played college tennis in Arizona and Illinois, where she won the Illinois State Collegiate Singles title. Jean has competed nationally on a 5.5 level. Additionally, Jean has coached junior players who have then gone on to earn college scholarships and adult players who have gone on to play nationally. The City of Gulf Shores is proud to be the place that Jean calls "home".

Buck Bobo has been teaching tennis for over 10 years. Seven of those years, Buck spent instructing at the Peninsula. For three years, he taught at the Beach Club, and he has now just completed his first year here, at the City of Gulf Shores. He is a member of the United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA) and coached Team Alabama in the Davis/Federation Cup in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He enjoys teaching tennis at all levels, whether beginner or advanced, and was himself ranked in the top 10 in the state as a junior player. Buck has called Gulf Shores "home" for the past 16 years and lives here with his wife, Lydia, and three children, Lilly, Dakota, and Addeline.
